At the Advertising Industry's Annual Summit, was hosting a Diverse Line up of Industry Folk, Politicians and Business Leaders to tackle the burning questions around the topic currently reaching fever pitch in the UK : BREXIT. Focusing more specifically on 'Growth Beyond Brexit' the Speakers were engaging you in Debate, speculate on what the Future of UK Advertising holds and offer up Expert Viewpoints. The Event was focusing on how Agencies, Brands and Media as a United Force can support Growth and identify the United Advertising Industry's Joint Priorities for a renegotiated UK-EU Relationship.

During the Summit, the Speakers were trying to give an Answer or a Hint of it, from the Following Core Questions :

- * What is the economic outlook and how should this affect our planning?
- * How are leading companies (media owner, agency and brand) looking at their strategy in light of Brexit ? What changes are they making to prepare and what can we all learn from them ?
- * Leaving aside the rest of the world, what can we do to make the most of the opportunity for domestic growth across the UK?
- * At a time when pressure is growing on businesses to justify every bit of spend, are we properly confronting the difficult issues facing the sector – from transparency to measurement? How is advertising currently seen in the boardroom ?
- * How can we continue to attract and develop the right talent to remain a truly global hub for advertising? How may Brexit affect our ability to keep the flow of international talent that helps to make London and the UK such a successful global centre?
- * Is advertising delivering adequately for the world's biggest brands? How is the landscape changing and how do we need to adapt to respond ?
