The E-2 Investor Visa allows an Individual to Enter and Work Inside of the United States based on an Investment he or she will be controlling, while Inside the United States. This Visa must generally be Renewed Every Two Years, but there is No Limit to How Many Times One Can Renew. When deciding to file a Petition for an E2 Work Visa, it's important to be Aware of the Key E2 Visa Requirements for Investors and Individual Guidelines. The US Citizenship and Immigration Services defines an E-2 Investment as "The Investor's Placing Of Capital, Including Funds And Other Assets, At Risk In The Commercial Sense With The Objective Of Generating A Profit. Your Investment May Be For The Purpose Of Establishing A New Business Venture, Or Purchasing A Pre-Existing Business"[7]. An E2 Treaty Investor Visa is a Non-Immigrant Visa reserved for Foreign Entrepreneurs of Countries that have a Treaty of Trade and Commerce with the United States. E2 Investor Visas allows Foreign Investors to enter and work inside of the United States based on a Substantial Investment in a Bona Fide Enterprise (A Real, Active Commercial Or Entrepreneurial Undertaking Which Produces Services Or Goods For Profit"[7]).

The United States has a Lucrative and Open Consumer Market, as well as Access via Free Trade Agreements to about 425 million more Customers for Goods and Services that are produced in the United States. Treaty Trader (E-1) and Treaty Investor (E-2) Visas are for Citizens of Countries with which the United States maintains Treaties of Commerce and Navigation, including France. You must be coming to the United States to engage in Substantial Trade, including Trade in Services or Technology, in Qualifying Activities, principally between the United States and the Treaty Country ; develop and direct the Operations of an Enterprise in which you have invested a Substantial Amount of Capital ; or fill an Executive/Supervisory Role or provide Skills Essential to the Operations of a Firm that qualifies as an E-1 or E-2 Business.
