Chicago rapper Arabb Luciano Releases Debut Don't Understand Feat. Rick Ross

Rick Ross Supports New Chicago Rapper

Chicago, 04.10.2018, 10:56 Time

THM Media Group - Chicago based rapper Arabb Luciano, following his high profile debut single Don't Understand Featuring Hip Hop icon Rick Ross, announces his upcoming full-length eponymous project later this year. The video for "Don't Understand" rapidly brought Arabb out of the dark and into the light as it gained nearly 1700,000 views on YouTube in less than a month. The release on the Crescent Records imprint of which Arabb is a partner, came as a collaboration with Ross's Maybach Music Group setting the tone for a virtual industry takeover with the debut.

In a recent interview with The Hype Magazine, Arabb discusses the collaboration with The Boss saying, "Crescent Music Group is the collaboration between MMG and my record label Crescent Records, I am one of three founders of Crescent Records the other two co-founders are my brother Ayman Baker and my cousin Tamer Refaie who are also my managers and executive producers on the music video "Don't Understand" ft. Rick Ross and have been a big part of my success. We three put our skills together and we were able to create a hit song and get the attention of Rick Ross the CEO of MMG and we had him fly out to Chicago in exactly a week after hearing my song to record his verse on it."

As part of Crescent Music Group's move to launch Arabb Luciano to the world, the label recruited THM Media Group to take the reins for marketing, media relations and brand positioning for both the label and Arabb. THM Media Group's work includes projects for media powerhouses, Royal Families as well as artists and includes label services for multiple recognizable brands in the entertainment industry.
