FORMER INTERIOR MINISTER SAYS CIVIL WAR IS COMING SOON IN FRANCE

BECAUSE OF TERRORISM & DRUG TRAFFIC

Paris, Washington DC, 07.10.2018, 00:31 Time

USPA NEWS - The outgoing French Interior Minister warns in his farewell speech against the critical situation of the suburbs and the rise of violence in France and announces that "France is close to a" Civil War "against terrorists and drug traffickers, who apply the law of the strongest "in the French suburbs. This alarmist alert occurred during the handing over, on 3 October 2018, of the resignation of Gerard Colomb, Minister of the Interior, which he pronounced thus at Place Beauveau (Ministry of the Interior), the resignation chose to leave the government for reasons of "disagreement" and also to pray for the next municipal elections or he represents himself at the city hall of Lyon.

"FRANCE IS CLOSE TO THE CIVIL WAR" ACCORDING TO THE EX MINISTER OF THE INTERIOR GERARD COLLOMB
Gerard Collomb, during his last speech of Minister of the Interior warned the Prime Minister by declaring that "France is close to the civil war and that it fears for the future"

The Prime Minister, in accordance with the article of the constitution, replaces at a moment's notice the post of Minister of the Interior while waiting for a future reshuffle.

Gerard Collomb also added that: "Today, we live side by side. Me, I always say it: I fear that tomorrow we live face to face ". A scary scenario "that completely destroys the myth of 'living together' gargling the right-thinking and right-wing".

THE SITUATION IN THE BEDIES IS VERY DEGRADED AND IT IS THE LAW OF THE STRONGER WHO IS IMPOSING
The Minister has stated that the situation in the suburbs is so degraded that soon the citizens will live face to face rather than side by side ...: "I went to all the suburbs difficult, the situation there is very degraded, c it is rather the law of the strongest who imposes itself, drug traffickers, radical Islamists, who has taken the place of the Republic (...) Today, we live side by side, and I have always said, I We fear that tomorrow we would have to live face to face, "said the minister, a member of a far-left party, the French Socialist Party, admitting that a civil war could be close in France because he fears the future.

THE ARRIVAL OF AFRICAN AND MIDDLE EASTERN MIGRANTS WILL WORSEN THE SITUATION AND MAKE IT INGRABLE-----

Gerard Collomb then added: "We must welcome foreigners from Africa and the Middle East, but by welcoming. If it is to put those we welcome in the neighborhoods that I have just mentioned, we will increase the problems and the situation will become unmanageable. Said the outgoing French Interior Minister warns in his farewell address against the critical situation of the suburbs. He adds: "I've been to every neighborhood, from Marseille's northern quarters to Mirail in Toulouse, to the outskirts of Paris, Corbeil, Aulnay, Sevran, because the situation is very degraded. We can not continue to work together by commune, we need an overall vision to recreate the social mix. Because today we live side by side, and I always say it, I fear that tomorrow we live face to face. "

IN THE SUBURBS IT IS RATHER "THE LAW OF THE STRONGEST" THAT APPLIES INTERIOR MINISTER SAYS---

"I went to all the suburbs difficult, the situation is very degraded, it is rather the law of the strongest" stated Gerard Collomb, as he is resigning from Interior Ministry. The leader of the opposition, Marine Le Pen, was surprised by the words of Collomb she answers: "Gerard Collomb reveals that the uncontrollable suburbs are like an explosive ready to be lit overnight and issued a solemn warning to the Prime Minister. We would have liked such a language of truth for 17 months! "

Recall that during the demonstrations of May 1, some of whose embroidering had generated the Benalla affair and his muscular and tough intervention to stop students "anarchists", the Black Blocs had destroyed hundreds of storefronts (MacDonald) and bus shelter, banks , by signing their drawings and tags of "Anticapitalists, anarchists ..." and this in full Paris. They are not suburbs , but ultra-armed and organized anarchists, hooded, in very beautiful districts of Paris and symbolic as Place de la Republique and Nation.-----

"The black blocks form, in the demonstrations, ephemeral groups, whose objective is to commit illegal actions, by forming an anonymous crowd unidentifiable, explained then Pierre-Henry Brandet, who was the spokesman of the ministry of the This is why these people wear black or very dark clothing, which makes identification and arrest difficult, so they dress at the last minute and immediately change their clothes once they are dressed. exactions ended. "-----

The Benalla affair has ended in dozens of hearings both at the National Assembly and the Senate, or the highest leaders of the French State (Elysee, Ministry of the Interior) and the high ranks of the French Police-----

The Benalla affair has resulted in dozens of hearings both at the National Assembly and the Senate, or the highest representatives of the French State (Elysee, Ministry of the Interior) and high ranking officials. the French Police live broadcast by the television channels, This is a first and unpublished, testing experience for the great dignitaries of the police and prefects, stemming from the Benalla Affair ... has also tainted and experienced these men ... The Minister of the Interior Gerard Colomb, meanwhile, answered the questions of the deputies, while rejecting the responsibility for the Elysee, during the hearings, but came out with the honors, at the end of these hearings reacting to the permission of Alexander benalla to be an observer at the May Day demonstration, and the use of a weapon, and police equipment, while he is President Macron's security guard. Since this summer and these hearings, it has been difficult for the Minister to maintain a relaxed atmosphere with the police, whose image was so dull.-----

Moreover, on the 10th of October, the commission of inquiry into the Benalla affair is nearing the end. Indeed, the senators scheduled a new hearing on Wednesday, probably the last before making their report which promises to be severe, given the malfunctions already pointed during their work.
