USPA NEWS - Few weeks before the presidential election, Nicolas Hulot launched a "call for solidarity" with at least 80 associations, including APF (Association of the Paralyzed in France, Leader Association defending handicap). Every citizen is invited to respond "present" by signing the call to push policies

One month before the presidential election, Nicolas Hulot launched a "call for solidarity" with nearly 80 associations, including the APF (Association of the Paralyzed in France, Leader Association denying the handicap). Every citizen is invited to respond "present" by signing the call to push policies to make solidarity the "cornerstone of their action".

IS SOLIDARITY AN OPTION OR CONDITION FOR SOCIAL PEACE AND PEACE IN THE WORLD ?

"Is solidarity an option or condition for social peace and peace in the world? At one month of the first round of the presidential election, on April 23, Nicolas Hulot threw a call up : an Appeal of Solidarity.

With 80 associations, the president of the Nicolas-Hulot Foundation for Nature and Man, wishes to "inject a soul supplement" into this electoral event that focuses all attention. Fighting against inequality, fraud, tax evasion, impunity for banks, politicians or multinationals, the priorities put forward tend to have a different voice in this campaign.

AN UNPRECEDENTED MOVEMENT OF MAGNITUDE

Among the 80 associations are Emmaus, WWF, Greenpeace, ATD Fourth World, Fondation Abbé Pierre and Les Petits Frères des Pauvres. Action Against Hunger, Oxfam, Doctors of the World, Catholic Relief, Islamic Relief, SOS Racism and the Association of Paralyzed in France (APF).-----

The Call for Solidarity focuses on solidarity with regard to people in difficulty, excluded or discriminated against. It defends access to care, housing, employment, education and income.

"Let us fight so that each and every one can make its voice heard in every territory and in every quarter, in all circumstances and on equal weight," says the 5 caps that this movement of unprecedented scope.
