BIOTHERM hosted the first "Biotherm Healing Summit" on March 7. A Symposium on the Theme of Skin & Healing, focusing on Major Research that has evidenced the link between Micro-Organisms and Skin Health.

Unveiling Life Plankton, the Healing Miracle upon which the Company was established, Biotherm proudly presented an Impressive Collection of 100 Scientific Proofs developed in Partnership with Internationally Renowned Research Centers that demonstrate the Power of Life Plankton to improve Skin accumulated over a 30-year Period.

BIOTHERM adds a New Chapter to Skin Health and knowledge with the First Biotherm Healing Summit, with a distinct focus on the World of Microbiomes. This ever-growing Industry offers a Promising Prospect to improve Human Health, as improving Technology allows for the Development of Microbiota in a variety of ways. Due to this reason, Microbiome Research is set to make waves in the Science and Medical World through its applications in Preventive Treatments, Therapies, Cures and Supplements.

Linked to the Microbiome Concept, the Rare Life Plankton is the basal Component of all Biotherm Formulas. Long fabled to heal Wounded Warriors in Roman Times, the Fountain was rediscovered after World War Two in the French Pyrenees. After Three Decades of Scientific Study, the Natural Organisms found in the Sulfuric Thermal Waters were found to improve all Skin Types, from Sebum Control, to Moisturization or Tightening of Pores - whatever the condition and at any age; reducing Wrinkles and improving Skin Clarity, fighting Loss of Elasticity or Acne....
