USPA NEWS - For this 21st edition, 228,416 festival-goers came to celebrate music solidarity from June 21 to 23 at the Hippodrome de Longchamp. This year, Solidays has mobilized crowds and personalities to defend access to treatment for all with the "# treatment4all" campaign. For three days, festival-goers danced night and day with headliners Angela, Die Antwoord, Macklemore, Parov Stelar, Supreme NTM, Therapie Taxi, Lomepal, the sensations of the moment, Dadju, Parcels, The Blaze, Vladimir Nightmare and discoveries like Kiddy Smile and Meute. Many festival-goers took the opportunity to visit the Village Solidarité, which brought together more than 100 committed actors for a better world. True to its tradition, Solidays was able to count on the arrival of inspiring speakers such as Yann Arthus-Bertrand, Eric Toledano and Olivier Nakache, Alexandre Mars, Hugo Décrypte and Lola Dubini, Dr. Donald Kaberuka, Marisol Touraine, Stéphanie Seydoux, or Laurence Tubiana who shared their visions of the world at the Social Club space. The Patrouille de France marked the spirit of this exceptional edition with a passage above Solidays to draw the French flag and a huge red ribbon in the skies of Paris

AFTER THE SOLIDAYS SPRING PUBLIC AID CAMPAIGN IS ORGANIZED IN THE FRAMEWORK----------After the "Solidarity Spring" public aid campaign organized in the framework of the last presidential elections, Solidarité Sida launched this year at Solidays "# treatment4all". It is a public mobilization campaign to challenge world leaders on their duty and responsibility to meet the financing needs of the Global Fund to Fight AIDS, Tuberculosis and Malaria. Personalities, volunteers, festival-goers mobilized to make access to medicines for all possible. In four months in Lyon, the Heads of State of the main donor countries will announce their contribution to the Global Fund. France is at the top of the diplomatic mobilization. At least $ 14 billion is needed to hope to save 16 million lives in the next three years and to make the next generation a world without AIDS. We have 110 days of mobilization. The countdown begins.
