DECLARATION BY THE SPOKESPERSON OF FRENCH FOREIGN AFFAIRS MINISTRY

OVER EUROPEAN RULES DUE TO COVID-19

Paris, Washington DC, 24.03.2020, 01:51 Time

USPA NEWS - Jean-Yves Le Drian, Minister for Europe and Foreign Affairs, will participate in the Foreign Affairs Council by videoconference on March 23, 2020, which will be largely devoted to the European and international response to the COVID-19 crisis.

Following on from the declaration by the G7 heads of state and government of March 16 and the European Council of March 17, 2020, France will advocate for a closely coordinated European approach to public health measures, returns European citizens, reduction of international contacts and movements and therefore closing of the external borders of the European area, protection of jobs and the economy, as well as in terms of cooperation in scientific research.
