USPA NEWS - Pakistan Celebrates Quaid-E-Azam the Second Youm-e-Takbir

The two most important and eternal celebration days for the Pakistan nation are the 14th August 1947, when the first Quaid-e-Azam Mohammad Ali Jinnah created Pakistan. The second being 28th May 1998, when the second Quaid-E-Azam Dr. Abdul Qadir Khan made Pakistan a phenomenal nuclear superpower, a force to be reckoned with, said Shazada Hayat President UICF (UK) and international community welfare campaigner.

This simply means Pakistan is more than capable of not just destroying any enemy out of existence, but can destroy the world many times over in defence of the nation and its territorial integrity. These are the great reasons the Pakistan nation celebrate 14th August and 28th May, with utmost patriotism and pride ecstatically.

On 28th May 1998 Pakistan emerged as the seventh most powerful nuclear armed country in the world. This also meant Pakistan became the first only Muslim country to be a nuclear superpower armed force.

Youm-E-Takbir celebration day is seen as the defining day in Pakistan history, when Pakistan defence became invincible. This beyond comprehension capability, brought about regional stability through the balance of power. The acquisition of this phenomenal and unique nuclear force was most certainly needed in the present international power race.

Therefore, the achievement of Dr. Abdul Qadir Khan is not just remarkable but phenomenal for Pakistan's survival and defence capabilities on the world stage. Dr. Abdul Qadir Khan gave his beloved motherland Pakistan, the capability and capacity to make the defence of Pakistan and the nation's sovereignty impregnable. The Youm-E-Takbir celebration is a declaration to any enemy of Pakistan. There shall never be any compromise when it comes to the defence of the nation and the sovereignty of the beloved Pakistan.

Shazada Hayat went on to say, I was not fortunate enough, like my late dear father, to have met my eternal great hero the first Quaid-E-Azam Muhammad Ali Jinnah. However, I am so proud to have met Quaid-E-Azam the second Dr. Abdul Qadir Khan, the legendary nation's hero and pride of the nation. I have and will continue to campaign for the final resting place of Quaid-E-Azam the second Dr. Abdul Qadir Khan to be at the mausoleum Mazar Quaid-E-Azam Muhammad Ali Jinnah in Karachi, so that the nation and the international guest visitors can pay homage, at the same time to the nation's greatest son of the soil of Pakistan. In the alternative to build a special mausoleum in Islamabad, close to either Pakistan Parliament or the Pakistan military headquarters in Rawalpindi.

May Allah (God) bless the two great sons of the soil of Pakistan whose greatest achievement makes the two Quaid-E-Azams of Pakistan legends who made the great difference, one making Pakistan and the other making Pakistan an invincible superpower. For eternity Pakistan patriots will forever uphold the golden words of the first Quaid-E-Azam Mohammad Ali Jinnah when he said, "There is no power on Earth that can undo Pakistan,"
