ZAYN MAILK SOLO DEMO LEAKS

FANS HAD BRIEF UNOFFICIAL TASTE

New York, 31.03.2015, 18:50 Time

USPA NEWS - Zayn Malik fans now have a taste, though unofficial, of the former One Direction member's solo direction. English songwriter/producer Naughty Boy, best known for his hit La La La with Sam Smith, posted a demo of a song called I Won't Mind to SoundCloud Monday.

Though the song was removed from the service within hours, fans have posted the stark guitar-vocal recording on YouTube and other sites. Malik gives a subdued, tender performance on the track, which includes lyrics like, "We are who we are when no one's watching/And right from the start, you know I got you."

"Let the music do the talking guys. thank us later," Naughty Boy wrote on Twitter when he posted the SoundCloud link. The original SoundCloud post included a caption, "There is nothing but love for what was left behind. That's why we don't mind."

I Won't Mind doesn't appear to be a hint at a first single or even any kind of official release from Malik, who announced his departure from One Direction last week after departing the band's world tour a few days before, citing stress.
