Union Government Announces Compensation

Enhanced Compensation

New Delhi, India, 26.04.2015, 18:18 Time

USPA NEWS - The Prime Minister, Mr. Narendra Modi chairing follow-up meeting to review the situation following earthquake in Nepal, in New Delhi on April 26, 2015. Central Government announced enhanced compensation for the people affected by the earthquake.

The Government of India has announced compensation of Rs. 2 lakh each, to families of those who lost their lives in yesterday's earthquake across parts of India.

The next of kin of those who lost their lives in various parts of the country due to the earthquake yesterday, shall receive an enhanced compensation of Rs. 4 lakh from the National Disaster Relief Fund.

This follows the Union Government's decision to revise the guidelines for the National Disaster Relief Fund, and raise this compensation amount from Rs. 1.5 lakh to Rs. 4 lakh, in the event of death due to natural calamity.

The above amount is in addition to the compensation of Rs. 2 lakh from the Prime Minister's National Relief Fund for the next of kin of those killed. A compensation of Rs. 50,000 has also been announced for the seriously injured.
