"No occupation of the stage was unknown to this faithful accomplice of Jean-Michel Ribes and Theatre du Rond-Point. With an inexhaustible fancy, he knew them all and reinventing them all: the actor, singer trades, director, like those in costume or prop ... The public of the "Fall Festival" will long remember the "Gipsy Paris", that he has created and performed in 1987.

He was also an internationally renowned illustrator. He left his signature on many film sets and magazines legendary fragrance such as "Him" or "Rock & Folk".-----

His latest iconic performance in "Opium" in 2013, presented at the Cannes Festival out of competition, left us alive forever with his image." [?] Official stamen of French Minister of Culture, Fleur Pellerin
