ICFLIX, the Middle East and North Africa's leading online streaming service will see its first Tunisian co-production competing for the most prestigious Awards in Arab cinema. Fares Naanaa's first feature film, 'Borders of Heaven' premiered at the Carthage Film Festival 2015, between 21 to 28 November and will now compete and be showcased at the Muhr Feature competition during the 12th annual Dubai International Film Festival, 9 - 16 December.

With a star cast of renowned actors, Lotfi Abdelli, Anissa Daoud, Mouna Noureddine and Sophie Ghodhbane, 'Borders of Heaven', tells the story of a blissfully married couple, Sara and Sami, and their relationship that crumbles and is pushed to breaking point, in the wake of a tragedy.

A Cinetelefilms Production with the support of the Tunisian Ministry of Culture Enjaaz Fund - Dubai Film Market Organisation Internationale de la Francophonie.

ICFLIX provides its users with access to its Jazwood (Arabic), Hollywood and Bollywood content, including the largest library of Arabic movies and shows available online. Additionally, subtitles and alternative audio options are available for a majority of the content, making it accessible for French, Arabic and English speakers.
